1954 ARTHRITIS AND RHEUMATISM CAMPAIGN

1. The Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation financial drive will be conducted in this Agency from 29 November 1954 to 11 December 1954.

2. This campaign is an organized effort by the Foundation to obtain funds for education, research, and the improvement and expansion of clinics and home care programs. Last year 12,000 man-hours of productive labor were lost in the greater Washington area alone because of these crippling diseases. One out of every sixteen people in the nation suffers from arthritis and the number of victims in this country increases nearly one-half million each year.

3. Agency employees are urged to contribute to this worthy drive. The Services Branch (Room 1516 Curia Hall), Employee Services Division, Office of Personnel, has been designated to receive and forward all Agency donations.
